		The functions of an Election Committee are performed by the two tellers appointed by the Chairman in accordance with the Company's By-Laws.
2.6	Have its Chairman and CEO positions held separately by individuals who are not related to each other.	X Art. IV, Sec. 2, of Amended By-Laws of the Company provides that the Chairman shall also be the CEO and his main responsibility is to define the strategic vision of the Company and align its operations to said vision. He guides the Board in formulating the objectives of the Company, and assists in establishing the operating policies and developing the means to achieve the objectives. Significantly, the administration and direction of the day-to-day affairs of the Corporation are reposed in the President, per Art. IV, Sec. 4, of the Amended By-Laws. The President has the general supervision and management of the business affairs and property of the Company, and ensures that the administrative and operational policies are carried out under his supervision and control. The President is also a director of the Company and, as such, is able to provide the Board with timely and first-hand feedback on the effectiveness of the policies that the Board adopts. Thus, notwithstanding, that the roles of Chairman and CEO are assumed by the same person, the concentration of the administrative functions in the person of the President ensures that the Board gets the benefit of independent views in formulating, evaluating, and assessing the effectiveness of the policies of the Company.
2.7	Have a director nomination and election process that ensures that all shareholders are given the opportunity to nominate and elect directors individually based on the number of shares	✓
