- (b) Provide a brief summary of the corporate governance policy that the board of directors has adopted. Please emphasis the policy/ies relative to the treatment of all shareholders, respect for the rights of minority shareholders and of other stakeholders, disclosure duties, and board responsibilities.

As explicitly contained it the Corporation's Revised Manual of Corporate Governance, the Board is committed to respect and protect the rights of its investors and minority interests. It recognizes the right of the shareholders to elect, remove, and replace directors and vote on certain corporate acts in accordance with the Corporation Code. - (c) How often does the Board review and approve the vision and mission?

The vision and mission of the Corporation have remained the same since its incorporation in 1994. However, the entry of a new majority shareholder in 2011 and the expansion of the business of the Company to include integrated residential, golf, and other leisure-related properties, and integrated tourism estates development, have created a need for the Company to revisit its vision and mission, with the end in view of contributing to the further growth and stability of the Company. The Board will take on this task in the coming months.

2) Chairman and CEO

- (a) Do different persons assume the role of Chairman of the Board of Directors and CEO? If no, describe the checks and balances laid down to ensure that the Board gets the benefit of independent views.

Yes ☐

No ☒

Identify the Chair and CEO:

Chairman of the Board	Andrew L. Tan – Chairman
CEO/President	Andrew L. Tan - CEO Ferdinand T. Santos – President

Article IV, Section 2, of Amended By-Laws of the Company provides that the Chairman shall also be the CEO and his main responsibility is to define the strategic vision of the Company and align its operations to said vision. He guides the Board in formulating the objectives of the Company, and assists in establishing the operating policies and developing the means to achieve the objectives.

Significantly, the administration and direction of the day-to-day affairs of the Corporation are reposed in the President, per Article IV, Section 4, of the Amended By-Laws of the Company. The President has the general supervision and management of the business affairs and property of the Company, and ensures that the administrative and operational policies are carried out under his supervision and control. The President is also a director of the Company and, as such, is able to provide the Board with timely and first-hand feedback on the effectiveness of the policies that the Board adopts.

Thus, notwithstanding, that the roles of Chairman and CEO are assumed by the same person, the concentration of the administrative functions in the person of the President ensures that the Board gets the benefit of independent views in formulating, evaluating, and assessing the effectiveness of the policies of the Company.

(b) Roles, Accountabilities and Deliverables

Define and clarify the roles, accountabilities and deliverables of the Chairman and CEO.

	Chairman and Chief Executive Officer	President

Deliverables	Company vision; sound and aligned policies, objectives, and goals.	Projects, plans, programs, and operating budgets for approval by the Board.

3) Explain how the board of directors plan for the succession of the CEO/Managing Director/President and the top key management positions?

The Board engages the expertise of the Organization Development Department of the Company to craft the requisite human resource programs that are essential to the creation of a viable and effective succession planning for management. These programs encompass a spectrum of human resource tools and processes that will be integrated in the Company's policies, procedures, and practices for selection, hiring, and training.

Under these programs, employees with relevant skill sets and utmost potential for advancement and growth are identified and given development experiences and training that will prepare them for greater opportunities and responsibilities in the Company.

The Board also looks beyond the internal organization of the Company and is open to sourcing from outside to ensure that the best candidates for any top key management position are properly considered, for the mutual benefit of the Company, its clients, and its stakeholders.

4) Other Executive, Non-Executive and Independent Directors

Does the company have a policy of ensuring diversity of experience and background of directors in the board? Please explain.

The Company has no written policy on this matter but the diversity of experience and background is considered in the nomination process. The present composition of the Board will show that most if not all of the members have extensive experience and proficiency in the core business of the Company which they obtained from their respective stints as executives of companies in the real estate industry where the Company belongs. Their diversity in experience and background reveals itself in the market segment that such other companies cater to, and the varied landscapes of such companies' known projects with challenges and settings that are unique for every project. The members of the Board also come from diverse backgrounds as professionals in their respective fields.

Does it ensure that at least one non-executive director has an experience in the sector or industry the company belongs to? Please explain.

Yes. Please refer to the answer to the immediately preceding question.

Define and clarify the roles, accountabilities and deliverables of the Executive, Non-Executive and Independent Directors:

	Executive	Non-Executive	Independent Director
Role	Administers and directs the operation of the Company	Develops, reviews, and reforms strategies	Develops, reviews, and reforms strategies
Accountabilities	Accountable for the overall operations of the business	Accountable for the effectiveness of the strategies of the Company	Monitors the effectiveness of the strategies of the Company
Deliverables	Projects, plans, programs	Sound policies	Independent analysis

Provide the company's definition of "independence" and describe the company's compliance to the definition.

"Independence" means freedom from the control of management and absence of business or other relationship which could, or could reasonably be perceived to, materially interfere with the exercise of objective judgment in carrying out one's responsibilities as a director.

The Company scrutinizes the professional, business, and personal affiliations, as well as the professional experience and background, of candidates for independent director. The Company reviews their qualifications as against the Guidelines for Nomination and Election of Independent Directors as contained in SEC Memorandum Circular 16-02, and the provisions of Rule 38 of the Securities Regulations Code.

Does the company have a term limit of five consecutive years for independent directors? If after two years, the company wishes to bring back an independent director who had served for five years, does it limit the term for no more than four additional years? Please explain.

The Company has no written policy fixing a 5 consecutive year-term limit for independent directors and governing the second term of independent directors. The Company, however, adheres to and is compliant with SEC Memorandum Circular No. 9, Series of 2011, which governs the term limits for independent directors. The Company abides by the rules imposing the 5 consecutive year-term limit, 2-year cooling-off period, second 5-year term, and the perpetual ban against independent directors who served for 10 years in the same company.

"Q: Will the Company declare dividends, either in cash or in stocks, anytime soon?
A: The closest that we can say relative to dividends is that if your company has sufficient retained earnings, if it has enough accumulated cash surplus, and if the exigencies of our business would so allow, then management will not hesitate to recommend to your Board the declaration of dividends."

"Q: About the Sto. Domingo project, I noticed that informal settlers are still around the

- condominium. Is there a plan to relocate the informal settlers to another place?*
- A: Those informal settlers, if we may call them that, are actually situated outside of our property. They are actually sitting on the road, on one of the streets abutting our project. We have already made representations with the local city government to have them removed. We have been continuously pursuing the matter.”
- “Q: The Company used to have a property in San Pablo which was being rented by Shoemart. Does it still own that place?”*
- A: Yes, the property which is being rented by Shoemart is in front of the Subdivision called Riverina. We still own 50% of that property, jointly with our landowner partners.”
- “Q: With regards to the Company’s holdings in MRT, does it still own any real estate in the MRT Stations?”*
- A: GERI owns an equity interest in MRT Development Corporation, the company that is undertaking all real estate developments along the MRT line.”
- “Q: What is the impact on GERI of the controversies in Camp John Hay project?”*
- A: GERI is not involved in the legal controversy between Camp John Hay and the Bases Conversion Development Authority (BCDA). GERI does not own or hold any equity interest in Camp John Hay.”
- “Q: My question is related to the recent news report that says, in three years’ time, the income of GERI will reach about P1 to P2 Billion. I heard from the management report given earlier, that we are looking at a 20% increase, so that will be equivalent to a net income of about P270 to P280 Million in 2012. How do we bridge the gap from 270 million to 1 to 2 billion of net income in three years’ time?”*
- A: With the launches of new projects that we have, the level of reservation sales that we mentioned earlier, and the expected completion date based on our timetable, we may hit the income level mentioned in the news report.”
